No. 308.—The following Notification of the Government of India, Foreign Department, is re-published for general information :—

Foreign Department, Notification, Judicial, No. 37 I.-J., Fort William, the 1st March 1880.

The Governor General in Council is pleased to declare that the following rules relating to the agreements of Legal Practitioners with clients, and imposing a penalty on the receiving or giving of commission, shall come into force in the Territories of Mysore on and from the date hereof :—

1. In these rules "Legal Practitioner" means an "Advocate or Pleader enrolled in the Court of the Judicial Commissioner of Mysore or in any Court subordinate thereto."

2. No agreement entered into by any Legal Practitioner with any person retaining or employing him, respecting the amount and manner of payment for the whole or any part of any past or future services, fees, charges or disbursements in respect of business done or to be done by such Legal Practitioner shall be valid unless it is made in writing signed by such person, and is, within fifteen days from the day on which it is executed, filed in the District Court or in some Court in which some portion of the business in respect of which it has been executed has been or is to be done.

3. Where a suit is brought to enforce any such agreement, if the agreement is not proved to be fair and reasonable, the Court may reduce the amount payable thereunder or order it to be cancelled, and the costs, fees, charges and disbursements in respect of the business done to be ascertained in the same manner as if no such agreement had been made.

4. Such an agreement shall exclude any further claim of the Legal Practitioner beyond the terms of the agreement with respect to any services, fees, charges or disbursements in relation to the conduct and completion of the business in respect of which the agreement is made, except such services, fees, charges or disbursements, if any, as are expressly excepted by the agreement.

5. A provision in any such agreement that the Legal Practitioner shall not be liable for negligence, or that he shall be relieved from any responsibility to which he would otherwise be subject as such Legal Practitioner, shall be wholly void.

6. Whoever commits any of the following offences :—

   (a) solicits or receives from any Legal Practitioner any gratification in consideration of procuring or having procured his employment in any legal business ;

(b) retains any gratification out of remuneration paid or delivered, or agreed to be paid or delivered to any Legal Practitioner for such employment ;

(c) being a Legal Practitioner, tenders, gives or consents to the retention of any gratification for procuring or having procured the employment in any legal business of himself or any other Legal Practitioner, shall be punished with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.
